ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my thanks to the people who have helped me most throughout my project. I am grateful to my teacher Mr. Rohit Rastogi for nonstop support for the project.

A special thank of mine goes to my colleague who helped me out in completing the project, where they all exchanged their own interesting ideas, thoughts and made this possible to complete my project with all accurate information. I wish to thank my parents for their personal support or attention who inspired me to go my own way.

At last but not the least I want to thank my friends who treasured me for my hard work and encouraged me and finally to God who made all the things possible for me till the end.

Dated: 27 November 2020

CHAPTER 1 - INTRODUCTION TO PROJECT

The Project Named as Monuments of India – A Travel Site is a webbased Project (Website) that provides information about Some famous monuments of India.

1.BASIC INTRODUCTION:

This project consists of 12 webpages that are linked together to form a website (i.e <https://rebrand.ly/monumentsofindia>).

The webpages are described as:

- 1.Monuments of India
- 2.Taj Mahal
- 3.Red Fort
- 4.Lotus Temple
- 5.Qutub Minar
- 6.Victoria Memorial
- 7.Gateway of India
- 8.Charminar
- 9.Hawa Mahal
- 10.Mysore Palace
- 11.CST
- 12.About Us

This project provides basic information about these:

- 1.Details
- 2.Gallery
- 3.3D view
- 4.Maps
- 5.Video
- 6.Other Basic Details.

2.PROBLEM DESCRIPTION:

- In these busy times people are busy in their work like using (like smartphone professional work).They have no free time to go over the beauty of India.
- Peoples go through Malls , Cinema halls to spend their Valuable time and to feel happy.

- As the future arises people will forget about monuments.

This Website will Guide/Motivate these people to go through the real beauty of India.

3.MOTIVATION

The thing which Motivate me to build this Website are:

- The decrement of People excitement towards traveling.
- Decreasing Number of Tourists.
- To Reduce the Impact of COVID-19 on Tourism

4. RESPONSIVE VIEW

Monuments of IndiaIndia is one of the most beautiful countries in the world and is best known for its colourful culture and fascinating heritage. Its grand monuments, like the Taj Mahal act as strong pillars of the rich and deep history that India possesses. From their splendid architecture to a strong legacy, the historical monuments of India speak volumes. Most of these Indian monuments were primarily built under the regime of Rajputana, Dravidian and Mughal emperors. The monuments of India are speaking stones of the glory of its rulers and the brilliance of artisans in ancient India. Due to the incredible beauty of India and the constant efforts of the government in maintaining the heritage sites, India tourism has flourished rapidly witnessing an increase in the number of travellers from all around the world. Some of the well-preserved monuments in the different parts of the country are Red Fort (North), Sun Temple Konark (East), Amer Fort (West) and Charminar (South).Indian monuments are popular worldwide for its beauty. The monuments are the standing examples of stretching the horizon of human imagination and thoughts. The kings and emperors who ruled India had their own way of expressing their ideas in bricks, marble, stone and mortars. These monuments are centuries old and have been examples of philosophies in the world. There are few famous monuments that are damaged during wars between kingdoms and foreign invasion. Visiting these places today tells you a lot of history and the culture in the bygone age.

Historical Places in IndiaThe ancient monuments of India are globally popular for their architectural brilliance. And, the marble inlay and stone carving work displayed through these centuries-old monuments is incomparable. So, if you're looking for holidays in India then plan a tour of historical places in India. In the state of Rajasthan, the monuments narrate the tales of strength, romance and bravery. While visiting these masterpieces, one can feel the aura and power of the ancient Indian rulers. Also, tourists will get to know that religion plays a significant role in Indian culture. And, the diversity of religions is clearly evident in the historical monuments too. The prominent cities of India as Mumbai, Delhi and Agra also have a lot to offer history lovers. With wonderful Mughal architecture dipped in the essence of Islam, the charm of Delhi never fades in terms of enticing the travellers. India Gate, Jama Masjid, Pura Qila, Lodi Tomb and Jantar Mantar are some of the most famous monuments in Delhi. The list of well-known monuments in Agra includes Agra Fort, Mariam's Tomb, Panch Mahal and Marium-uz-Zamani Palace and the Taj Mahal - one of the seven wonders of the world. Some key heritage monuments in Mumbai are Elephanta Caves, Gateway of India and Chhatrapati Shivaji Terminus.

Famous Monuments of IndiaIf you are a history buff, monuments like Mysore Palace, Sanchi Stupa, Fatehpur Sikri and Hawa Mahal should feature on your must-visit monuments in India. Situated in the Mysore city of Karnataka, Mysore Palace is a royal residence of Wadiyar dynasty. The great Sanchi Stupa in Bhopal is among the most striking Buddhist monuments in India. Built during the Mauryan period it reflects a perfect blend of Buddhist art and architecture. The sprawling Fatehpur Sikri complex was built by the Mughal emperor, Akbar, in the 16th century. With the UNESCO world heritage site status, the architecture of Fatehpur Sikri showcases a perfect amalgamation of Persian and Hindu architecture. Hawa Mahal, located in the heart of Pink City, Jaipur, is a unique honeycomb structure said to reflect the royalty of Rajput ruler, Maharaja Sawai Pratap Singh.

National Monuments of IndiaAmong the most popular national monuments of India are the Red Fort, Taj Mahal, Qutub Minar, Humayun's Tomb, Sun Temple Konark and Hampi. Built in the 16th century, the Red Fort in Delhi is known to transport the visitors back to the era of Mughal dynasty.
The icon of immortal love – The Taj Mahal, a white-marbled marvel, situated on the banks of River Yamuna in the city of Agra, never fails to mesmerize. Also, Humayun's Tomb of Delhi is considered as the finest example of Persian architecture. Further, Odisha's Konark Sun Temple, which is constructed in the shape of a colossal chariot, is a UNESCO world heritage site. Once known as the capital of the Vijayanagar Empire, Hampi is the most popular tourist attraction in Karnataka. Constructed in the 14th century, its ruins are now a UNESCO world heritage site. Undoubtedly, Indian monuments are the pride of the nation!
